

Triennial Torah Readings 2022-2025

Study to show thyself approved unto God,
A workman that needeth not be ashamed,
Rightly dividing the word of truth.
II Timothy 2:15

The Torah is the foundation of all Scripture. This being the case, an inadequate or erroneous understanding of the Torah makes it much more difficult to come to a proper understanding of the rest of the Scriptures. For this reason, the Jewish sages devised a system for studying the Torah so the average person could come to better know God's word.

In the first century there were two different reading cycles available for use in the synagogues. The Annual Cycle went through the entire Torah and Haftarah readings in just one year; beginning each year on Simchat Torah, at the end of Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles). The Triennial Cycle was a three year cycle that always began on the first Sabbath of Nisan (Aviv).

~ A Brief ~ ~ Torah Reading History ~

According to ancient records, the practice of Torah study was begun by Ezra (a Priest and Scribe), after the Jewish captives had returned from Babylon.

During the reign of Antiochus Epiphanies, the Jewish people were forbidden both to read the Torah and to circumcise their children. Anyone caught doing so was put to death. Many were martyred because they continued to circumcise their children despite the ban. However, they managed to get around the prohibition concerning Torah reading in a very resourceful way. They set up a cycle of readings in the Nevi'im (The Prophets) that reminded them in some way of the Torah portion that was normally read on that particular Sabbath. The connection might be a reference to a story found in the Torah reading, or even a single word that reminded them of that week's Torah passage (called a parasha in Hebrew). After reading this Torah substitute, one of the men would say: "Oh, that reminds me of the story about..." and off they would go into a discussion about that week's Torah portion without ever breaking the civil law against reading Torah. These portions from the Nevi'im became known as the Haftarah, which means "other readings," or "completion of the Torah."

~ Y'shua Read the Haftarah ~

In Y'shua's day it was customary (as it is today in orthodox synagogues) for both the weekly Torah and Haftarah portions of Scripture to be read each Sabbath. This provided the basis for discussion by anyone who might want to comment upon them. It was also common to invite a distinguished guest to participate in the Torah or Haftarah readings and make whatever comments they deemed appropriate.

This was the situation in which Y'shua found Himself when He visited his hometown of Nazareth, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was His custom:

"So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read." (Luke 4:16)

The passage He was given to read (Isa. 61:1-2) is not found in the Haftarah readings of today, which are based on the Annual Cycle. However, that passage would have been read during the Hebrew month of Tishri in the third year of this Triennial Cycle.

~ The Triennial Cycle ~

The enclosed Triennial Cycle is based upon the research efforts of Congregation Beikvot HaMashiach (Followers of Messiah) of Seattle, Washington. For the benefit of the Body of Messiah, they have given us permission to share their work with you, our readers.

The members of Congregation Beikvot HaMashiach have spent untold hours combing various Jewish source materials in order to recreate the ancient Triennial Cycle. As a result of this study, they have discovered some unique features which are not found in the Annual Reading Cycle:

- ◆ The readings are much shorter than with the Annual Cycle; since it takes three years to read the entire Torah and Haftarah, rather than one year. This allows more time for in-depth study.
- ◆ The schedule calls for one of the Psalms to be sung by the congregation almost every week. This adds another meaningful dimension to the study. The 150 Psalms, when used in numerical order over the three years, are said to always fit the subject of the Torah and Haftarah readings!

- ◆ When these readings are used according to this schedule, it will be noted that one is learning of major events at the time of their occurrence. For example, at Passover season, Passover will be the subject in each of the three years. There are also prescribed Scripture readings and Psalms to be sung for each of the Festivals.
- ◆ The Apostolic portions are suggested readings on the same subject. It is the goal of Congregation Beikvot HaMashiach to have the Apostolic portions encompass the whole of Apostolic Writ.

Thus, with the Triennial Torah Reading Schedule, all four of the major divisions of the Scriptures are represented; the Torah, the Prophets and the Writings, plus the Apostolic Writings.

be done by joining in where Congregation Beikvot HaMashiach is currently studying. The calendar dates are given in the second column of each year's readings.

There are a total of 152 sequential readings in the Triennial Cycle. When a thirteenth month (Adar II) occurs, four additional readings are inserted. These four readings are currently found at the end of the Year 3 list. In addition, special readings are included for each of the Festivals. These are found on page 6.

~ Commentaries ~

Study guides have been developed by Congregation Beikvot HaMashiach, which can be used to aid groups that want to begin using the Triennial Cycle. For more information, log on to their website at:

www.messianic.ws

There are also many fine Jewish commentaries available which discuss the Torah portions, some of which include the Haftarah readings as well. However, all of these are divided up into parashot that follow the Annual Cycle rather than the Triennial Cycle. Therefore, when using one of them, be mindful that they are covering a larger portion of Scripture each Sabbath.

~ Show Yourself ~
~ Approved ~

In Jewish teaching, the study of the Scriptures (especially the Torah) is considered to be the highest form of worship. It is only through continuing study that we become familiar enough with the Word of God so that we are able to rightly divide the word of truth. Thus, when we become well grounded in the instructions of the Torah, we can more fully understand the teachings of our Lord and Savior, Y'shua HaMashiach. For this reason, even as Paul exhorted Timothy, we exhort you to study:

"... the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus [Messiah Y'shua]." For "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." (II Tim. 3:15b-17)

And,

"Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

(II Tim. 2:15)

Study and be blessed!

SAW

I long for your salvation,
O LORD,
And Your law is my delight.

Other Hebrew Roots Publications ~

Hebrew Roots

A periodical publication dedicated to exploring the Hebrew roots of the Christian Faith.

The Quiet Revival

Today, Abba (our heavenly Father) is lifting the veil from the eyes of both Jews and Christians. This booklet explains the unveiling that is currently taking place among many of God's people.

The Spring Festivals: The Passover in Egypt and Jerusalem

A thorough study on Passover as it was experienced when the children of Israel left Egypt, as well as the events which occurred in Jerusalem at the time of the crucifixion of Y'shua.

A Believer's Passover Haggadah

A complete manual that guides the Believer through a Passover Seder (set order) which holds Y'shua HaMashiach central to that event.

Instructions for a Successful Seder

Special instructions designed to aid the host and hostess in preparations for their Passover Seder.

The Spring Festivals: Shavu'ot: The Feast of Weeks

A study on Pentecost (Shavu'ot), the day on which both the Torah and the Holy Spirit were given to the Bride of Messiah.

The Fall Festivals: The High Holy Days

Examines Rosh HaShannah (Yom Teruah) and Yom Kippur.

The Fall Festivals: Sukkot & Shemini Atzeret

An analysis of the meaning of the final Festivals of the Religious year.

Guarding the Tongue

This booklet explores the principles of guarding against Lashon Hara (the evil tongue) as outlined by Chofetz Chaim. A help for anyone who wants to end the 'evil tongue' in their midst.

Hanukkah Readings for the Believer

Scripture readings from both the Old and New Testaments that are appropriate for each night of Hanukkah. Includes instructions on how to properly light the Hanukkah candles.

Weekly Torah Readings

The traditional Torah readings for each week of the year beginning on the first Sabbath after Sukkot (the Feast of Tabernacles). Includes the traditional readings from the Prophets and appropriate readings from the Brit Chadasha (New Testament).

Which Law?

There were two sets of laws practiced in first century Pharisaic Judaism; the Written Torah (instruction/law) and the Oral Torah (traditional interpretation). Which law was Paul speaking about when he made some of his "anti-law" comments?

All publications are available free of charge

Ho!
Everyone who thirsts,
Come to the waters;
And you who have no money,
Come, buy and eat.
Yes, come, buy wine and milk
Without money and without price.
Why do you spend money for what is not bread,
And your wages for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
And let your soul delight itself in abundance.
Incline your ear, and come to Me.
Hear, and your soul shall live;
And I will make an everlasting covenant with you –
The sure mercies of David.

Isaiah 55:1-3
